

The Cowboy Song

He was a smokin' gun
Ten years on the run
I was the only one got me through

Each day a new song
We danced to every one
Still, the nights were long
Then there's you

Homeward bound
On the misty mountain trail
Oh, won't you ride with me?
I'm takin my leave
Your sweet Abeline

Bargirls wear a smile
In their barroom style
He'd lay there for a while Another round or two

Ain't no peace of mind
This old well's running dry
It's just the daily grind
Then there's you

Homeward bound
On the misty mountain trail

Oh, won't you ride with me?

I'm takin' my leave

Your sweet Abeline

I walk this town

With my head hid down

There's rumour around

I'm leavin'

Like the sun knows best

Layin' down in the west

This time, this time, you'll see

Homeward bound

On the misty mountain trail

Oh, won't you ride with me

I'm takin' my leave

Your sweet Abeline

I'm takin' my leave

Your sweet Abeline

Lyrics & Music:

Cielle Montgomery / James Church

© Montgomery Church 2021