

Louise

Lonesome and lovin'
Well, that's my friend
What she finds she holds onto
Until the bitter end

Eyes always wandering
Her hair's half-tied
She never fit the mould
Did she even try?

Don't ask me how Louise is
Louise is doing fine
She's wrapped herself up tight against the wind
Oh, what's his name that she with?
Can't say I didn't try
So don't ask me how Louise is
Louise is doing fine

Hard times always find her
Landing at her feet
In between she's only kicking stones
Down a one-way street

Front door's always open
Floors are wearing thin
From the string of cowboys and dreamers
The wind keeps blowin' in

So, don't ask me how Louise is
Louise is doing fine

She's wrapped herself up tight against the wind
Oh, what's his name that she with?
Can't say I didn't try
So don't ask me how Louise is
Louise is doing fine

Maybe tomorrow, maybe someday down the track
I won't find her wandering
When a good one doubles back

So, don't ask me how Louise is
Louise is doing fine
She's wrapped herself up tight against the wind
Oh, what's his name that she with?
Can't say I didn't try
So don't ask me how Louise is
Louise is doing fine
